

This action is necessary to augment communications during emergency action.
It is a proven technology and provides quick and readable communication over a large area.